COLLECTIVE SHOW

NEW REALISM AND FIGURATIVISM IN CONTEMPORARY URBAN ART

Figurativism has contributed in a very important way to the huge impact that urban art is having on the cultural sphere.

In this exhibition we want to remark this phenomenon through some of its main representatives. Following that, we entrusted the curatorship to Axel Void, renowned muralist, who, through its Void Projects platform, has already designed several exhibitions in which he has had some of the main names that have built this movement.

Tàpia brings through B-MURALS a look at those artists who, both coming from the street or from the studio, have contributed to expand the limits of acceptance on painting in the streets.
